Re: Damaris Drewry

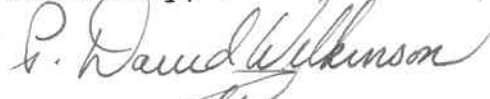

Dear Friend:

It is my delight to commend Damaris to you as a creative artist, brilliant vocalist, a poet, writer of songs, healer and beautiful and sensitive human being.

Damaris was an active presence at Saint Francis in the Foothills for a period of about eight years. She was a regular and active participant in our Celebrations (worship services), and added her voice and her writings to the whole experience of worship. She assisted in teaching classes on music and healing, was a practitioner of healing touch, and did much, in our entire church and city, to make us all more sensitive to the inner workings of God's spirit in our midst.

We all miss her, and commend her to your love, your care, and your inspiration.

Sincerely,

Dr. P. David Wilkinson
